IELTS Academic Writing Task 1 Activity – teacher's notes

Description
An activity which demonstrates what is expected of students from Academic Writing Task 1 by analysing both the task and a sample answer. It includes a brief writing of the task.

Time required: 70 minutes

Equipment: assessment criteria for Task 1 (on OHT or printed handout for reference material) / assessment criteria

Aims:

- To introduce task 1 on the Academic Writing paper
- To clarify the instructions and the requirements of the task (and skills)
- To help students understand what is expected from the response (goal of view by analysing a sample answer)
- To practice writing an answer under timed conditions

Procedure

1. Hand out the sample task. Allow students to study it for 1 minute.
2. Put the students into pairs and ask one student in each pair to explain the basic requirements of the task to their partner and what they have to do. Their partner should take notes and they have to understand the task in the same way. Monitor and check the correct answer from one of the students.
3. Ask the other student in the pair to explain when features of the graph to their partner. Encourage the other student to do any missing details.
4. Underlining the task and ask to print. When they have finished, check answers from the class and ask any further necessary detail.
5. Hand out the sample answer. Allow students time to read it. Tell students to imagine they are the examiner and give the partner some feedback about it. Then the students in pairs to answer the questions in Exercise 2, analysing a sample answer. When they have finished, check answers from the class and ask any further necessary detail.
6. Give out photographs of the assessment criteria or use an OHT of these on the whiteboard. Ask from the class good examples of where the criteria are fulfilled by the sample answer. Correct and add further points where necessary.
7. Collect in the sample answer and ask students to write their own answer. Explain that they are not to be graded, but to use the sample answer as a model for their own work. Give them 10 minutes.

15. 8. Plus, you can help me by adding any questions that you can remember from a recent IELTS exam in the comments below. Do you agree or disagree with this statement? 23. If you want to see exam questions that reportedly appeared earlier in 2021, then you can look at our 2021 archive. What do you think? To what extent do you agree or disagree? Schools should stop using books to teach and use films, TV and computers in the classroom instead. BONUS - Playing team sports at school can teach students a number of lessons that are useful outside of sport. Young people today are often less polite and show less respect than previous generations. Why do you think this is? What can be done to attract more local residents to visit museums in their country? 5. To what extent do you agree or disagree with this view? Others believe that local councils should allow people to choose different designs for their houses. Well, maybe not to every question, but at least by practicing with these, you will have sharpened your idea-generation skills. What values can students learn from playing team sports? Nowadays foreign visitors show more interest in the museums of a country than its local residents do. 7. 6. Yes! I want to download your free e-book 22. Do you think young people who leave their parent's home at a younger age have more advantages or disadvantages than those who stay? Some people think that the government should spend money on cultural activities such as music or art. 18. In many countries today the proportion of older people in the population is higher than the proportion of younger people. Do you think that the advantages of this trend outweigh the disadvantages? As always, these questions are provided so that you can check that you have ideas for the new topics. More and more tasks in the home and at work are being performed by robots. 17 Many companies sponsor sports to advertise their products or service. Hey! It is so important that when you sit down to practice IELTS writing, you only use questions that are "genuine". My observation of the most recent IELTS essay questions from 2021 is that there have been A LOT of Discuss Both Sides and To What Extent questions. When traveling to a different country, people should copy the behaviour and habits of the inhabitants of the country they visit. Click here to learn more about how we can help GT IELTS Essay Questions (February 2021 - September 2021) 1. In many countries, it is common for people to consume fast food. How can they apply these values in the future? What are the current GT writing trends? Academic IELTS Essay Questions (February 2021 - September 2021) 1. Some people say that the development of technology means that people no longer need to learn the skill of handwriting. If you are preparing with a teacher or want high-quality feedback on your writing then you should always use a question from the original IELTS Cambridge Series. To what extent do you agree or disagree with this statement? Plus, I divide the questions into Academic and General Training (so you can be sure you are tackling the right type of questions) and have highlighted the main topic of each question for you. Does this development have more advantages or more disadvantages? Others say that the individuals who contribute to the society (such as scientists or teachers) are more successful. 23. In many countries, people are earning more money today than in the past, so they are able to buy more things. Is this a negative or positive development? What advantages and disadvantages does this bring for the teams and individuals that these companies sponsor? It is universally accepted that eating too much sugar has a negative effects on people's health. Why do you so many young people like shopping? Others believe that it is circumstances that lead people to commit a crime. Do the advantages of this trend outweigh its disadvantages? Do you agree or disagree? 14. Some people believe that family is more important than friends. Others believe that children should do their homework on their own. Others believe recycling should be taught in schools. Some people say that instead of preventing climate change, we need to find a way to live with it. 2. This means using either questions that come from the IELTS Cambridge 1 - 15 series or those that have been created by an exam writer like those in my 100 IELTS essay question blog post. However, many students like to practice recent IELTS essay questions i.e. topics that have been reported by recent test-takers. In some countries, young people choose to move from their parents' home to their own house at an early age. Follow our step-by-step guide to every type of essay to find out what the examiner expects and exactly what you can do to satisfy the band descriptors in our Task Two course. Therefore, some believe that the government should control the amount of sugar people consume. What can parents and schools do to keep traditional customs alive? 17. People who are learning a foreign language can face a number of difficulties. What are some of these problems? In your opinion, what are the best ways to overcome these difficulties? 9. 11. Do you think this is a positive or a negative development? Eighteen is the appropriate age for children to finish school. 14. Some people therefore believe that the advertising of certain foods should be banned in the same way that some countries have banned advertising cigarettes. Then come join the students at My IELTS Classroom who are using our unique video courses, live lessons and marking service to maximise their scores. OK - those are the 50 most recent IELTS essay questions. Nowadays, people prefer to shop at large shopping centres rather than in local shops or markets. Others think that it is the responsibility of an individual to monitor their sugar intake. I will try to do this every month so that you can be sure you have ideas for every possible IELTS question in your exam. What can be done to solve this problem? Some people think that criminal behaviour has genetic causes. Why do you think this is the case? In some countries it is illegal to stop people applying for a job because of their age. Others think that people should be free to choose where they work after graduation. Most information today is available online whereas in the past it was stored in books or on paper. Sure. Others argue that rewarding and praising children is a better way to teach them the difference between right and wrong. Young people today mostly learn by reading books or watching movies and TV shows, rather than personal experience. In fact, this is more or less all that I have seen in the first month of the new year, so be sure that you are ready to answer these. 16. In many countries traditional customs are being lost. Why do you think this is? A lot of research has shown that overeating can have a number of negative effects on the body. 20. Is this a positive or negative development? The first three lessons are free! 16. 21. The media has the right to publish information about the personal life of celebrities. Some people say that the Olympic Games no longer play a role in the 21st century. 7 Some people think that parents should teach their children about the importance of recycling. Others think that only men should be allowed to work in these areas. Do you think this is right or wrong? BONUS In many countries, shopping is now one of the most popular types of leisure activity. Big companies should provide sports and social facilities for the local communities where they operate. What can parents and teachers do about this? 24. 4. Some people believe that women should be able to join their country's army and police forces. Due to population growth many people these days live in apartments with limited space and no outdoor areas. Also, the test writers seem to be making small changes to the wording of questions, which don't actually change what you are expected to do, but may confuse some students. Others believe that it is still necessary for people to learn how to write by hand. Some people argue that thanks to the widespread accessibility of the internet, libraries are no longer necessary. If you enter the exam room and feel confused by the question, my advice is always to simply answer the question that you have been given. Can they remember the general topic? Discuss both these views and give your opinion. 25. However, unfortunately, test-takers rarely (if ever) manage to accurately remember the wording of the question that they had in their test. Do you think this is a good or bad use of public money? Just click here for your copy. Developments in technology mean that more and more machines are being used in the workplace instead of human employees. Every country in the world has its own road rules, but many drivers don't obey them. 13. The best way to increase road safety is to make car drivers retake their driving test every year. What can be done to solve this problem? 19. The difference between countries is becoming less and less evident as people all over the world wear the same fashions, watch the same TV channels, use the same brands, and have similar eating habits. However, some people believe that fast food has too much influence on our lifestyle and diet. Does this development have more advantages or more disadvantages for local people? Do you think the advantages of this development outweigh the disadvantages? Some people say that playing sports helps to prepare children for their future jobs. Discuss both views and give your opinion. Some people believe these mothers should be paid by the government. Discover the secret to writing a Band 7.0+ essay Then download a copy of our FREE e-book, which explains the most common errors made by test-takers and how you can avoid them. I understand why students want to do this - knowing what the recent IELTS essays questions are and checking that you can answer them is reassuring. Can they remember the exact wording? Nowadays in many countries traditional customs are becoming less popular than in the past. Nowadays many people get the news online instead of reading it in newspapers or watching it on TV. In other countries, young people stay with parents for a longer time. 3. Some people think that it is a good idea for parents to help their children with their homework. 13. Some people believe that individuals who earn a lot of money are the most successful in life. In many parts of the world, more and more large supermarkets are opening and smaller local shops are closing down. Many mothers stay at home to take care of their family and don't go out to work. 22. 12. What do you think are the reasons for this? Writing a good IELTS essay doesn't have to be difficult. Discuss both views and give your own opinion. Definitely not! Sadly, changing even one word in a test can change the focus of a question and, therefore, make it impossible to answer! So, every month, I collect 50 recent IELTS essay questions from students in My IELTS Classroom, and edit them so that they are as close to perfect as possible. For example, in the past, you were always asked "Is this a positive or negative trend?" but recently the same question has been phrased as: Is this a good thing or a bad thing? If asked to choose between a life without work and a life that involves working most of the time, people will always choose not to work. 5. In some countries, there are not enough medical or educational facilities in rural areas. Others think this is a waste of taxpayers' money. This page is updated monthly and is now showing questions from 2021. 19. Nowadays tourists and scientists are allowed to travel to remote natural environments. 4. Some people believe that individuals over 65 should not be allowed to continue working. Yes, there are question types that repeat, but if you are given a direct essay question or a type of question that is unfamiliar, simply focusing on answering the question/s you have been given clearly is always the best approach! Looking for an IELTS school run by native speakers who have a proven track record of helping students achieve their potential in IELTS? Why is this? What are the current Academic writing trends? 15. The Internet is the best place to find information. So far this year, I have noticed two main trends for the recent IELTS essay questions for General Training students. First, there continue to be more 2-part questions than in the Academic test, and the topics seem to be more and more diverse. Some people think that new houses should be built in the same style as older houses in an area. Therefore, some people believe newly graduated teachers and doctors should be sent to work in rural areas for some time. Some people say that the best way to teach children to behave well is to punish them. Is this a positive or a negative development? Others think that people should be allowed to work for as long as they choose. Some people think that children should be taught how to become good parents at school. 10.
